The galactic alignment that will take place on December 21, 2012 will affect several races in the Milky Way galaxy. On December 21, 2012, for the first time in 26,000 years, the Earth's ecliptic plane will line up with two other planes: the celestial and the galactic plane:

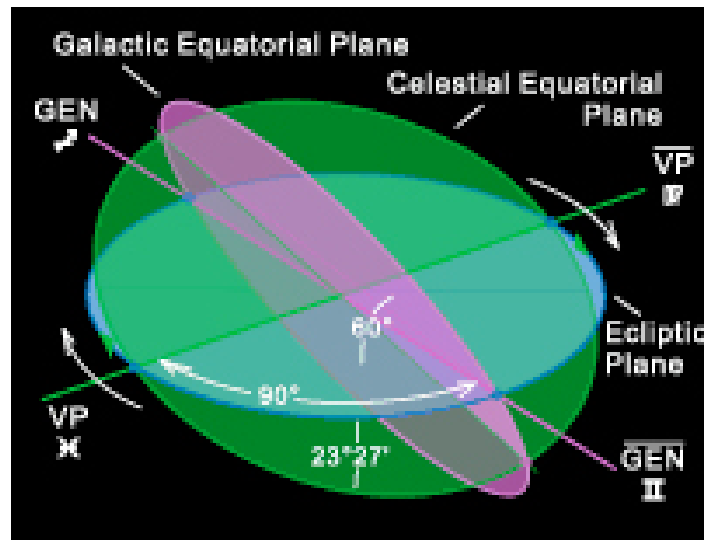

Ecliptic Plane - The plane of the Earth's orbit around the sun that is inclined at an angle of $23^{\circ}27'$ to the equator due to the tilt of the Earth's axis.

Celestial Plane - The same plane as the Earth's equator.

Galactic Plane - The plane in which the disk of the Milky Way Galaxy lies.

Earth's celestial plane, or the projection of the equator out into space, passes through the following constellations: Pisces, Cetus, Taurus, Eridanus, Orion, Monoceros, Canis Minor, Hydra, Sextans, Leo, Virgo, Serpens, Ophiuchus, Aquila, Aquarius.

Some of these neighboring constellations are homes to alien races who will be affected by the Ascension. Similar to humans, these alien races need information about the Ascension and the energy from the galactic core that will cause changes on December 21, 2012.

On December 21, 2012 the Earth's ecliptic plane, the celestial plane and the galactic plane will all line up for Earth's Ascension.

Most of the neighboring races have been altering genetics due to the misguided leadership of the Draco alien race that is the oldest race in the galaxy. As humans have started to discover, gene manipulation causes genetic decay that can only be reversed by God. This decay leads to numerous health problems and indirectly, causes Descension. There is an opportunity for Ascension on 2012 and no life form should Descend. The races who wish to Ascend can use the same Prayer as humans to request a reversal in their genetic deterioration and through Prayer, indirectly help humans who are mostly in a deep sleep about the Ascension.

There is only One God who created the races who will be affected by the galactic event on December 21, 2012 and there is a crisis confronting every race:

Races with altered genetics will Descend without God.

Humans who are asleep about the Ascension have very little time to wake up.

Gene manipulation of one's own genetics and predatory practices toward other races is a Service-to-self [STS] path that can be reversed with Prayer and a commitment to The Law of One.

Prayers with God's words are not just for humans—they're for every race that wants to Ascend. Words such as "Reverse, Filter, Clean, Restore" and others—are powerful requests that God will honor if you have made a commitment to honor the "One."

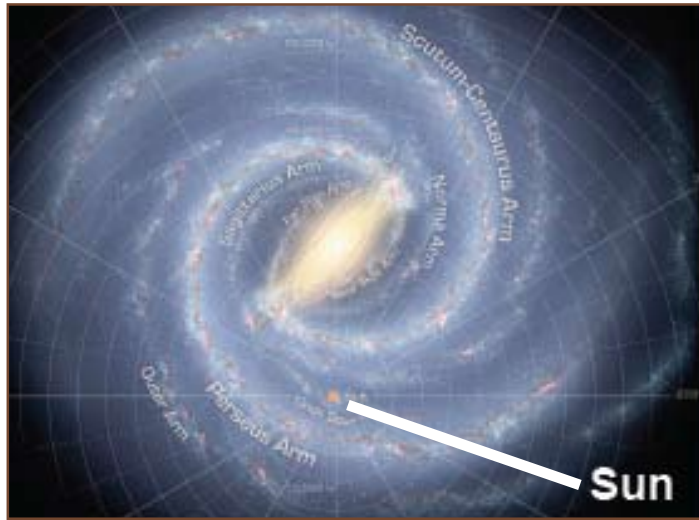

This chapter, as well as the next few chapters, contain more stories about Earth's past [for humans who are waking up] and they also contain detailed instructions for composing a personal request that will demonstrate the power of Prayer.

EARTH'S NEIGHBORS

Neighboring alien races have been violating a Law of Non-interference for the past 25 million years. The groups who are the most well-known include:

Race, Galaxy or Constellation

Pleiadians [Taurus constellation, Milky Way]

Earth's Sun is in the Orion arm of the Milky Way Galaxy and it rotates around the Galactic Center. Many of the alien races who visit Earth are from neighboring constellations and others are from distant constellations that have conquered these neighbor races. Conquest usually means genetic control and modification—which is where Earth is headed.

Note: According to Exopaedia:

Although their main base in the Orion constellation is located in the Bellatrix system, the Draconians can be found in nearly all known constellations [near Earth]. They have conquered major parts of the Orion Constellation. Draconians are master geneticists, who have been in the Universe for billions of years, and who have created several races. [...] They have come to consider themselves as gods, and have an attitude of absolute superiority. They are also master 'controllers,' extremely mental in nature, and characterized by their lack of respect for free will.

GENE MANIPULATION CAUSES DECAY

Alex Collier, who channels for the Andromedans, says that several alien races have been modifying genetics—starting with the Draconians who are a very old and technologically advanced race. Many humans have heard the story about the Greys—and how their race is dying out. David Jacobs, an associate professor of history at Temple University and an author of a book on the Grey's hybridization program, says Greys are anxious to combine human genetics with their own—to preserve their race. The truth is—all genetic manipulation causes genes to decay. The reason the Greys are so desperate for human genetics is because their race has been altered more than most. Humans who are reading this chapter may have heard about genetic decay in India's cotton crops grown with Monsanto seeds. Since the 1960s, when Monsanto first took their 'green revolution' to India, the slide in production [due to genetic decay] has caused massive suffering for India's farmers—many of whom have committed suicide. Frontline's "Seeds of Suicide" produced by filmmaker Chad Heeter in July, 2005, provides in-depth details about the suicides. The film is available on the PBS Web site [www.pbs.org] and Google video [Search keywords: "Chad Heeter" and "A video on Andhra Pradesh Farmers Suicide"].

AN AGENDA BUILT AROUND DNA

The races who know that their own DNA is decaying want to harvest human DNA that is regenerated at the Ascension. New Agers who read books have heard about the Ascension but most of the information they have been given is very vague. Alien races assume that humans will miss a spiritual Ascension due to their lack of knowledge. And, because humans know so little about a biological Ascension, aliens also assume they'll never miss their extra DNA. To check whether I am right about the DNA decay and the DNA agenda, I asked:

"Are You God? [3 variations]."

"Yes."

"Is David Jacobs correct about the Grey's hybridization program?"

"Yes."

"Is this program due to their decaying DNA?"

"Yes."

Body of an Indian farmer who drank a bottle of pesticides to commit suicide in response to his mounting debts. Farmers who use genetically modified bacillus thuringiensis [Bt] cotton seed and pesticides from Monsanto are promised 'increased yields,' but Bt cotton requires more water and more chemicals that's an economic trap. News sites such as truthout.org publish stories about the suicides and reports say that close to 50,000 farmers have committed suicide. See: www.truthout.org/041709D.

"Does all genetically modified DNA decay?"

"Yes."

"Can decaying DNA be regenerated by anyone but You?"

"No."

"Is Monsanto's Bt cotton an Earth example of decaying genetics?"

"Yes."

"Are there several alien races who want to harvest human DNA at the Ascension?"

"Yes."

"Do they think human DNA can be used to regenerate their decaying DNA?"

"Yes."

"Can human DNA be used to regenerate their DNA?"

"No."

"Will it appear to regenerate at first but then decline?"

"Yes."

"Can these alien races use God action word such as Restore in a request for You to restore their DNA?"

"Yes."

"Will You grant them their request?"

"Yes."

"Will they need to give up all of their artificial changes?"

"Yes."

"Will their DNA be restored according to the morphogenetic blueprint and their God-given DNA?"

"Yes."

NEW AGERS IN DENIAL

Chapter 11 contains hints that there are more than just one alien race manipulating humans and within days after I added the chapter to www.godsebook.org, I received an e-mail from a New Age friend who said she does not believe that the Sirians can be involved with darkness. Her response illustrates how thorough the Sirians have been at covering their tracks. In their book, The Stargate Conspiracy, authors Lynn Picknett and Clive Prince unmask the Sirians several times—but only after meticulous research. At the beginning of their book, they explain that they did not intend to write about a conspiracy. Their original intention was to write a follow-up book to their 1997 book, The Templar Revelation that argues that Christianity is an offshoot of the ancient Egyptian religion of Isis and Osiris—meaning that our culture is not Judeo-Christian but Egypto-Christian.

Had the Picknett-Prince been researching and writing ten years later [2007 instead of 1997], they would most likely have noticed that Egypto-Christian is “in” and Judeo-Christian is “out”— particularly on Internet’s social networking Web sites. The surge of interest in Egypto-Christian origins is not an accident. It is a very well-orchestrated campaign that is designed to lead us away from God.

ANOMALOUS PHENOMENA

An interest in anomalous phenomena began with Charles Fort [1874 – 1932] whose name lives on in Britain’s monthly magazine called the Fortean Times— covering ufology as well as ghosts and other paranormal topics. Fort was the first to write about “unidentified flying objects” and the first to hypothesize that strange human appearances and disappearances might be explained by an alien abduction. Much later, Erich von Däniken’s Chariots of the Gods?

[1968] proposed that artifacts and monuments around the world provide evidence that humans interacted with alien races due to the sophisticated technology it would have required to build monuments and advanced ruins from cultures that have disappeared. Note: A film based on Erich’s book is available at Google video.

By the 1970s, ufologists, anthropologists and archaeologists [who broke away from science that underpinned their studies], began focusing on Egypt. An ancient astronaut theory emerged that says aliens visited Earth and had contact— influencing the development of human culture— particularly technology and religion. Books that became popular include Sitchen’s, The 12th Planet [1976], Robert Temple’s, The Sirius Mystery [1976], Robert Bauval and Adrian Gilbert’s, The Orion Mystery [1994] and Graham Hancock’s, The Sign and the Seal [1992].

PRINCIPLE OF NON-INTERFERENCE

From a human perspective, contact by an advanced alien race seems enticing—due to potential accelerations in knowledge that can be learned from space visitors. However, the perspective from the other direction is just the opposite. Interference in the development of an inferior

Giant figure of a Condor in the Peruvian desert that can only be seen from the air. Forms include giant lizards, spiders, monkeys, llamas, dogs, hummingbirds, and zigzagging and crisscrossing lines made by the Nazca people who lived between 200 B.C. [Before the Common or Christian Era] and 600 C.E. [Common or Christian Era].

In his book, Chariots of the Gods, author Erich von Däniken proposes that the Nazca lines, many of which are lines and geometric shapes, formed an airfield for alien spacecraft. Note: Engravings of a spider and a lizard are clues that indicates the Nazca were Reptilians.

civilization is considered to be unethical—a concept that has been woven into modern science fiction. In the fictional world of Star Trek, produced in 1966, by Gene Roddenberry, non-inference is called, “The Prime Directive.” Although this non-interference principle was introduced in earlier science fiction, the concept is widely understood by an estimated 40 million fans of the Star Trek universe. To understand the real principle of non-interference, I asked:

“Are You God? [3 variations].

“Yes.”

“Is there a real principle of non-interference in the universe?”

“Yes.”

In Earth’s history, the Prime Directive is thought to be based on the principle of Westphalian sovereignty that arose out of treaties signed in Europe in 1648 after the Thirty Years War and Eighty Years War. Westphalian sovereignty involves three key principles:

Sovereignty and the right of political self determination

Equality between states

Non-intervention of one state in the internal affairs of another state

From the 20th century onward, supranational institutions have been slowly unraveling the principle of Westphalian sovereignty saying that it is “outdated.” To learn more, I asked:

“Is the principle of non-interference related to The Law of One?”

“Yes.”

“Are there consequences for interfering?”

“Yes.”

“Are the consequences enforced by a governing body?”

“Yes.”

“Has the principle been unraveling

similar to the way it is unraveling on Earth?”

“Yes.”

Guessing, I estimated that a group that uses the word “Council” might be the governing body.

“Is the Andromedan Council responsible for blocking races that violate the principle of non-interference?”

“Yes.”

“Is the Nibiruan Council responsible for blocking races that violate the principle?”

“No.”

“Did the Dinoid and Reptoid races mentioned in Sitchen’s timeline, that colonize Earth 26 million years ago, violate the principle of non-interference?”

“Yes.”

“Were there any consequences?”

“No.”

“Has the Andromedan Council been ‘looking the other way’ for 26 million years?”

“Yes.”

“Have the Dinoid and Reptoid races been interfering for that long?”

“Yes.”

ALEX COLLIER ON ALIENS WHO VISIT

Alex Collier, a contactee for the Andromedans, acknowledges that there are many races visiting Earth. Michael Salla’s article, “Typology of Extraterrestrial Races According to Alex Collier and the Andromedans,” contains so many references to different alien races [on Earth], that the article reads like a reference guide.

Collier refers to Non-interference several times in the article and speaks of humanity’s [or, any race’s] “feeling of wishing assistance that manifests itself from 10% of the population” as “overruling the Law of non-Interference.” To find out if there is such an override, I asked:

“Are You God? [3 variations].

“Yes.”

“Are there any ‘overrides’ to the Prime Directive?”

“Yes.”

“Is one of them a ‘wishing assistance’ override that manifests from 10% of the population?”

In Michael Salla’s article, “Typology of Extraterrestrials.” Alex Collier, a contactee for the Andromedans, says that the Pleadians had a base under the pyramids at Giza in the 1930s and were involved with the Germans prior to World War II. Photo: Pyramids at Giza from Cairo #5055686.

[BIG] “No.”

“Have the interlopers made this up?”

“Yes.”

Alex’s report in Salla’s article says there were Pleadians under the Giza plateau in Egypt in 1933 when Greys first made contact with the Germans. According to Collier, the Germans turned the Greys away because they were already ‘involved with Giza intelligence.’ Collier also says the Pleadians in the Andromedan Council are attempting to quarantine our solar system from invading forces [from the Orion group and Alpha Draconis]. These points led to the following questions:

“Were there Pleadians under the Giza plateau in Egypt in 1933?”

“Yes.”

“Are they still there?”

“Yes.”

“Did the Greys contact the Germans in 1933?”

“Yes.”

“Were the Germans already involved with the Pleadians?”

“Yes.”

“If the Pleadians have had a headquarters underneath Giza since the 30s, do they really try hard to ‘quarantine’ our solar system from invading forces?”

“No.”

Alex says the only race that has violated the non-interference principle are a race of Grey aliens known as the Dow. Note: Exopaedia lists Grey Reptilians as a “species” of Draconians.

Collier says that the Dow have been on Earth since 1953 and that they are here on a mission to secure human DNA:

The Dow have come here with their own agenda, a survival mission to find a home and save their race from extinction by interbreeding with us - without our consent. They have been crossing our genetics with theirs [...].

The Dow’s original agreement was to assist humans by sharing technology. The [U.S.] government, in turn, gave its promise that the Dow could study humans, in complete secrecy in underground bases (Dow avoid bright light). Almost immediately the Dow broke the agreement and used their technology to take control of events here on Earth.

Alex says that the Dow have created this same type of scenario on twenty-six other worlds in other universes at the present time:

They [the Dow] have enslaved these planets for their rulers and have broken the will and the spirit of many. We could suffer a similar fate if we are not careful about our own belief systems.

Collier also says that in such instances, the Dow refer to themselves as the “ruling race” and typically ask the Orion Group and the Reptilians to come to the planet and colonize “as guests.” Collier says “the problem” then becomes “how to get the Orion Group to leave of its own volition” due to the fact that they have “technically not been the ones to violate the ‘Law of Non-intervention.’”

To find out if details about the Dow are true, I asked:

Gene Roddenberry and his wife Majel who played the role of Nurse Christine Chapel in the original series and Lwaxana Troi in Star Trek: Next Generation.

In the fictional world of the Starfleet Command, the Law of Non-Intervention is known as the “Prime Directive.”

“Are You God? [3 variations].

“Yes.”

“Is there a race of Grey aliens known as the Dow?”

“Yes.”

“If the Dinoids and Reptoids have been on Earth for 25 million years—does that mean that the Grey aliens have been here a lot longer than 1953?”

“Yes.”

“Are all of the Dinoid and Reptoid races experimenting with human DNA to try to preserve their own DNA?”

“Yes.”

“Are the Dinoids and Reptoids pretending that it’s only the Dow?”

“Yes.”

Have the Dinoids and Reptoids developed almost an impenetrable shield to block humans from requesting Your help in that amount of time?”

[BIG] “Yes.”

“Can the shield be surpassed with Prayer?”

“Yes.”

“Are Prayers said at Sun Rise and Sun Down the most powerful?”

“Yes.”

“Do aliens have a means to scan and focus interference tactics on those who say Prayers?”

“Yes.”

“Can Azurites manage interference tactics until the Ascension?”

“Yes.”

“Do the Dow exist in secret underground bases?”

“Yes.”

“Do the Dow control events on Earth?”

“Yes.”

“Are the Dow and Draconians the same group?”

“Yes.”

“Did the United States government enter into an agreement [the Edwards Agreement—at Edwards Air Force Base] with the Dow that would allow people to be abducted in exchange for advanced technology?”

“Yes.”

“Was there a condition that said that the abductees would not be harmed, that they would be returned safely and that they would not remember the incident?”

“Yes.”

“Are all abductees harmed?”

“Yes.”

“Do the Dow and the Draconians consider themselves to be the ‘rulers of the planet?’”

“Yes.”

“Have the Dow and the Draconians invaded twenty-six other worlds as Alex Collier describes?”

“Yes.”

“Have they invaded more than twenty-six?”

“Are they always interested in DNA to restore their own?”

“Yes.”

STARGATE’S DNA RESEQUENCER

The Prime Directive that originated in science fiction books and Star Trek television is also a plot device in other popular science fiction including Babylon 5 [1993] and the military science fiction series Stargate [1994]. Although it’s a simple principle, the writers who create these programs have been diluting it with plot lines that involve conquests and manipulation.

In the fictional Stargate universe, characters also refer to “Ascension” usually in reference to the “ancients,” a humanoid race who were the builders of the stargates. Stargate TV writers define Ascension as:

...a process by which a sufficiently-evolved sentient being may shed their physical body and live eternally as pure energy on a higher plane of existence full of knowledge and power.

Humans are not learning any real information about the Ascension from New Age publishers and the most popular science fiction shows are inventing false ideas that also include machines that can resequence DNA:

Ascension can occur when a human evolves the ability to use approximately 90% of their brain capacity. The Ancients who Ascended naturally reached this point without the aid of technology. They however, developed the DNA Resequencer, a device capable of making humans so advanced that they could perform telepathy, telekinesis, superhuman senses, speed, and strength, precognition, perfect health, the ability to self heal rapidly, the power to heal by touch, and the ability to use many parts of their mind and fully focus on something. Spiritual Ascension can occur through meditation when one is pure of spirit and in the search for enlightenment, has a fully opened mind, and has shed one's fears and attachment to the mortal world. In the process of Ascension through meditation, many beings obtain the same supernatural abilities that users of the DNA Resequencer receive.

SIRIAN BODY TRESPASSING

At the beginning of Sitchen's timeline, the "intelligent etheric civilization" that he describes are Sirians. The Exopaedia site has this to say about the Sirians:

With regard to the inhabitants of Sirius, one should keep in mind that the Sirian system is the Stargate's DNA Resequencer is also called the Genetic Manipulation Device. In the fictional world of Stargate, the DNA Resequencer can alter the DNA of any human. home of many galactic species, both physical and non-physical, humanoid and non-humanoid. Most of these races are quite benevolent towards mankind. But it is important to know that there is a minority of negative species, too, in Sirius, focusing upon personal gain through imperialism, control and manipulation. Some of the more horrific abductions that sometimes take place have been orchestrated by these negative Sirians, who can mainly be found in the Sirius B system.

To learn more about the Sirians, I asked:

"Are You God? [3 variations]."

"Yes."

"Is it true that there are physical and non-physical Sirians?"

"Yes."

"Is the Exopaedia's description correct—that the negative ones are on Sirius B?"

"No."

"Are there negative Sirians on both Sirius A and B?"

"Yes."

"Are there any benevolent Sirians?"

"No."

"Is Sirius B Nibiru?"

"Yes."

"Is Sirius B or Nibiru also nicknamed the 'Deathstar'?"

"Yes."

“Do non-physical Sirians attack humans through body possession?”

“Yes.”

“Is it a coincidence that the SG1 and Stargate Atlantis plot lines have incorporated the Ascension?”

“No.”

“Are there aliens who are body possessing or body trespassing?”

“Yes.”

“Can an alien body trespass a body that belongs to an STO being?”

“No.”

“Do they try?”

“Yes.”

The alien-influenced writers have created Ascended beings known as the Ori who don't offer their followers Ascension because they don't want to “share the energy.” [Note: The Ori also believe they are the creators of human life].

“Does everyone Ascend?”

“No.”

“Do some Descend?”

“Yes.”

“Does Ascension vs. Descension refer to spiritual aspect of Ascension?”

“Yes.”

“Are the races who have been violating the Law of non-interference Descending?”

“Yes.”

“Does Decension have physical consequences?”

“Yes.”

“Were the Sirians once a totally etheric race?”

“Yes.”

“Have the Sirians who interfered—physically Descended?”

“Yes.”

“Do the non-physical Sirians understand this consequence?”

“No.”

“Do Descending races regenerate DNA?”

“No.”

“Is there time for these races to change direction and regenerate DNA of their own?”

[BIG] “Yes.”

THE EGYPTIAN ENNEAD

This is a good point in the chapter to mention real Ascended beings—the Nine gods of Egypt's Great Ennead—and their Creator [or, God]. Egypt's Great Ennead consisted of Ra, and his children Shu and Tefnut, and their descendants Geb, Isis, Nephthys, Nut, Osiris, and Set.

To research their book, The Stargate Conspiracy, Lynn Picknett and Clive Prince studied The Pyramid Texts or the hieroglyphic inscriptions found on the [real] inside walls of seven pyramids that speak of the Nine gods as the “One.” Their book's Prologue contains a quote from The Pyramid Texts:

...although there were many, they were only ever truly One—each an aspect of their Creator.

History calls the Nine gods “deities” but this is a misinterpretation. Even though the word deity is derived from Latin words that mean “gods” and “goddesses,” in English, a deity is an immortal being. History has also skewed “Oneness” to mean “monotheism.” To learn more about the Great Ennead, I asked:

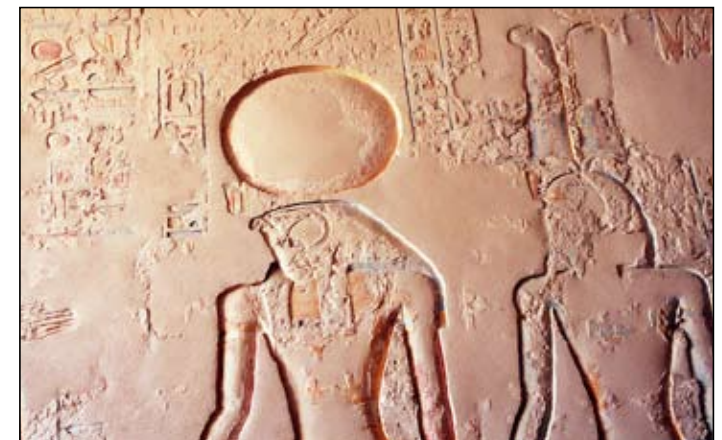

“Are You God? [3 variations].”

“Yes.”

“Does the word ‘One’ in Picknett's and Prince's quote from the Pyramid Texts refer to The Law of One?”

“Yes.”

“Do Service-to-Other [STO] beings have an easier time understanding The Law of One than Service-to-Self [STS] beings?”

Ancient Egypt's Great Ennead consisted of Ra and his children Shu and Tefnut, and their descendants Geb, Isis, Nephthys, Nut, Osiris and Set. Source: Wikipedia.

“Yes.”
 “Were Ra and the other gods of the Great Ennead all Service-to-Other [STO] beings?”
 “Yes.”
 “Was this group referred to as the ‘Nine?’”
 “Yes.”
 “Were the ‘Nine’ immortal?”
 “No.”
 “Was the average lifespan of a god—4,000 to 5,000 years?”
 “Yes.”

Most people assume that ‘service’ refers to ‘work or acts’ done for another [as defined in the dictionary]. STS and STO refer more to consciousness or worldview relating to how a person sees himself/herself in relationship to all of life or the whole. Work or acts then follow naturally.

“Is the ‘Council of Nine’ who speak through mystics and channels in Picknett and Prince’s book, The Stargate Conspiracy—a group of imposters?”
 “Yes.”

THE NINE IMPOSTERS

In The Stargate Conspiracy, readers discover “The Council of Nine” who claim to be the nine gods of the Egyptian Ennead. The Nine spoke through mystics and channelers at small private meetings in the United States that former Army/CIA parapsychology researcher Andrija Puharich organized for small groups in his research laboratory in Glen Cove, Maine and later on his estate in Ossining, New York.

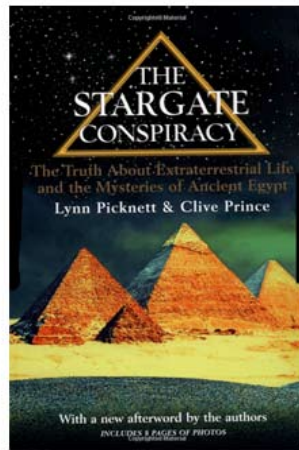

At early meetings, the Nine spoke through an Indian mystic named Dr. D. G. Vinod and later through Phyllis Schlemmer, author of The Only Planet of Choice. Picknett and Prince provide details about Puharich’s guest list and express concern that the Nine mesmerized an influential elite including high-level politicians. The surprising guest list at the Puharich meetings included European nobility, scientists from the Stanford Research Institute, Canada’s Bronfman family, and high-level politicians including Senator Claiborne

Pell who was chairman of the Senate’s Foreign Relations Committee, C.B. “Scott” Jones, a U.S. Naval intelligence official, former Vice President Henry Wallace and Star Trek producer Gene Roddenberry. The Nine also spoke at channeling sessions at the Esalen Institute through a psychic named Jenny O’Connor. Nine seminars were held so frequently that they were listed as “staff.” Guests at the institute included Al Gore, and Mikhail Gorbachev.

Critics of the New Age channeling circuit say that the Nine are still speaking to a network that includes the two-man team who were once directors of operations of Richard Hoagland’s influential Enterprise Mission: David P. Myers and David S. Percy.

Independent of the Puharich meetings, the Nine also spoke through author James J. Hurtak who wrote the Keys of Enoch [1987] and Carla Rueckert who channeled material for The Ra Material [1982].

James Hurtak’s original hard copy edition of the Keys of Enoch has the letters YHWH on the cover that we discovered is the Mesopotamian god EN.LIL, ENKI’s brother, who “sought mankind’s destruction in a flood” [See: Mistaken Identities?, Chapter 11].

Seeking to write a follow-up book to their 1997 book, The Templar Revelation, that argued that Christianity was an offshoot of the ancient Egyptian religion of Isis and Osiris, Lynn Picknett and Clive Prince stumbled on what they call a “well-orchestrated campaign by extraterrestrials posing as the nine gods of Egypt’s Great Ennead.”

Two points worth noting from Picknett and Prince’s book include the fact that contact with the Council of Nine in Carla Rueckert’s channeled work came only after Carla met Andrija Puharich, who organized channeled meetings with the Nine for his Round Table Foundation [1948]. Also, Gene Roddenberry’s biographer, Joel Engle, said that Gene worried that a script for a movie called The Nine, produced in 1975, was to prepare Earthlings for the arrival of entities ‘from beyond’ and that he may have unwittingly have been set up the world for an ‘invasion of evil.’

CONTROLLERS OF THE UNIVERSE

Although The Stargate Conspiracy authors do not manage to identify the entities who posed as the “Nine,” they do a good job of discrediting them as imposters due to suspicious content in their messages. In a chapter called “Contact?” Lynn and Clive explain that the Nine present themselves as “Man’s concept of God” and as “controllers of the universe.” Speaking through Dr. G.G. Vinod at Andre Puharich’s Round Table Foundation meetings in Glen Cove, Maine in the 1950s, the Nine said:

God is nobody else than we together. There is no God other than we are together.

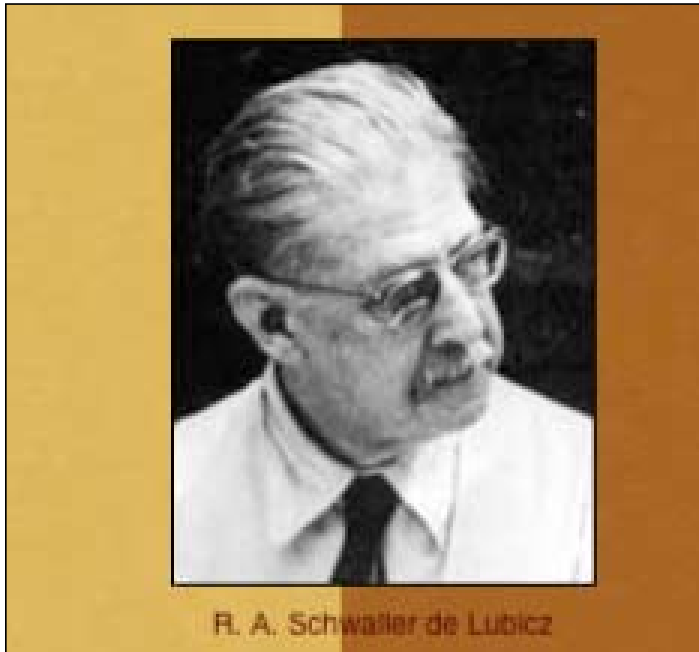

Messages that give away the fact that the imposters are Service-to-self beings and not Service to Others include racist remarks about Muslims and a comment that the Nine destroyed Atlantis ‘out of rage.’ Reptilians are mentioned in the book but not by name. From Marc Amaru Pinkham’s book, Return of the Serpents of Wisdom, we know that the The Great White Brotherhood were Reptilians. In The Stargate Conspiracy, The Great White Brotherhood are “adepts” who contacted Helena Petrovna Blavatsky [1831-1891, the influential nineteenth century founder of the Theosophical Society, Saint-Yves d’Alveydre [1842-1909], who founded the Synarchy Movement and Aleister Crowley [1875-1947] who formed the Sirian Hermetic Order of the Golden Dawn. The book’s Epilogue also describes information that shamans of the world receive from serpents while in trance—a phenomenon that seems to be consistent regardless of where the shamans are located.

SYNARCHIST MOVEMENT

Picknett and Prince describe synarchy, as “a politic-esoteric system” that is “government run by secret societies” or a “rule by a priesthood.” Joseph Alexandre Saint-Yves d’Alveydre [1824-1909], the founder of the synarchy movement, was influenced by ‘ascended masters’ who claimed that an ancient synarchy government had been transferred to inner Earth [Agartha] in 3,200 B.C. Whereas anarchy says the state should have no control over individuals, synarchy says it should have complete control, d’Alveydre [and the invisible adepts] proposed that synarchy can have complete control by taking over three key institutions: political, religious and economic.

Picknett and Prince question the true identity of the Nine based on ideas they espouse that are similar to synarchy, or control by secret societies. In a chapter called "Secret Masters" Picknett and Prince describe synarchist Schwaller de Lubicz [1887–1961] whose photograph appears on the Inner Traditions—Bear & Company Web site at www.innertraditions.com [Note: Inner Traditions and Bear & Company have merged].

Picknett & Prince say many see de Lubicz as a mathematician but his foremost interests were Hermeticism and alchemy. He's also been called a 'protofascist' due to his influence in the mystical underpinning of Nazism and status as "fervent synarchist." They explain that Schwaller was attracted to Egyptology because it was ruled by "divine kings" and "priesthoods."

MAGICIAN ALEISTER CROWLEY

Aleister Crowley's invisible adept advisor was a being known as Aiwass or Aiwaz who communicated Crowley's work called, The Book of the Law. Crowley believed that Aiwass was a secret chief of a group of disincarnate entities directing a Sirian Hermetic Order of the Golden Dawn. Crowley formed an Earthly "Third Order of the Golden Dawn" that was also called Argenteum Astrum or the Silver Star [Note: the silver star is Sirius]. The philosophy of Argenteum Astrum centers on Sirius which is regarded as source of great magical power. Aiwass was an emissary from Sirius who said the number of Sirius is "nine." To learn more about the Sirians who posed as secret masters, I asked:

"Are You God? [3 variations].

"Yes."

"Are The Great White Brotherhood Sirians?"

"Yes."

"Are there any other races in the Brotherhood?"

"Yes."

"Are there Draconians in The Great White Brotherhood?"

"Yes."

"Do Sirians pose as Reptilians?"

"Yes."

"Have Sirians [and other races] been promoting 'control by secret societies' since the nineteenth century?"

"Yes."

"Are the invisible beings who contacted Blavatsky, d'Alveydre and Crowley—Sirians and Draconians?"

"Yes."

"Is this another form of trespassing?"

"Yes."

"Will continued trespassing cause these races to Descend?"

"Yes."

"Do they understand this?"

"No."

"Is it too late for them to change direction?"

"No."

"Do they need to change direction soon?"

"Yes."

"Will their decaying DNA cause race extinction?"

"Yes."

"Will continued genetic modification eventually ruin their chances for Ascension?"

"Yes."

"Is it critical that they do not let the upcoming Ascension slip by?"

"Yes."

"Can they follow instructions for Prayer that will put them on the path to Ascension?"

"Yes."

"Will You help them?"

"Yes."
